THE MUSIC MAN

FRANK L. MARK

"The Music Man Show" which has created quite a bit of interest, locally, and has been on the air some twenty-six weeks over our local radio station WSWN, is presenting to the younger generation a wonderful opportunity to show the public what they can do.

The show was started by Frank L. Mark as an experiment with Mark giving music lessons over the air. The sponsor at that time was the Liggett Music Co., in West Palm Beach and the program was heard every Saturday morning at 10:15 A. M.

Up to the present date the program has worked up to a very good talent show. Mark states that Patsy Elliott of Pahokee is now being featured and that she has wonderful possibilities. Patsy was discovered on the show last winter.

The present sponsor for Mark's show is B. Elliott of Pahokee who has signed a contract for the next thirteen weeks. The program will still be heard at 10:15 A. M. Saturdays.

Mr. Mark is a well known figure in the radio entertainment world having been with the Columbia Broadcasting Co. for a ten year period. Prior to that time he was with Vincent Lopez for four years and has played at the Capitol Theatre in Chicago. Frankie Carle is his personal friend.

Mr. Mark's wife, Erel Fay, Mark assists him on the local show with the commercials.

MISS NELLIE COOK REVEALS ENGAGEMENT

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Nellie Cook to Rudolph McMillan has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cook of 608 Marion Street, Ft. Myers.

The bride-elect is a graduate of La Belle High School and Florida Barber and Beauty College of Jacksonville, and is employed here at Faye's Beauty Salon.

Mr. McMillan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McMillan of this city, and received his education at Ft. Hill and the late Mrs. Hill, became the bride of Clarence W. Kidder, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kidder, in a beautiful double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at the Community Methodist Church. The service was read by the Rev. Jay O. Jameson of the Allapattah Temple Methodist Church in Miami, before an altar banked with palms and white gladioli. Cathedral tapers burned in branched candelabra on each side of the altar.

Traditional nuptial music was played on the organ by Miss Mary Eleanor Kidder, and the Rev. Leonard Vandewater sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with net over outlined with seed pearls, long fitted sleeves, and peplum over the long full skirt. Her veil was of finger tip length and attached to a tiara of shirred net. Her only ornament being a strand of pearls, and she carried a white satin prayer book topped with two white orchids.

Miss Alice Cromartie as maid of honor wore a gown of pale blue marquisette and matching section mentioned in the resolution, which had been prepared by the RDB bureau. News carrying the lead as it was occupied most of the time.

One of the additional features of the afternoon was a visit and inspection of the Sugarland estate range. Here the crowd saw what the range was prior to its improvements, how it was now divided into parcels for grazing purposes; were shown the range herds of Brahman, Hereford, Angus and Shorthorn cattle, some 3500 of them and were told the story of the cross breeding work carried on there, and results that had been obtained and hoped to be obtained. Sid Crochet, project manager, was mighty proud to show and discuss the features of the ranch.

BIBLE QUESTION

ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHET INTERNATIONAL BIBLE

Question—Why did Cain kill Abel?

Answer—We read the answer in 1 John 3:12: "Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous."

Q—Do you believe in foreign missions?

A—The Lord Jesus Christ gave us the great fundamental charge of foreign missions in Matthew 28:19: "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world unto all nations; and then shall the end come."

Q—Is baptism in water absolutely essential to salvation?

A—Jesus said: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." Mark 16:15, 16. The third on the cross could not receive baptism and will be saved, but no man can willfully reject any part of God's Word and expect salvation in that condition of refusal. "Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin." James 4:17. We are told in 1 Peter 3:21 that baptism is "the answer of a good conscience toward God." How is your conscience? Has it made the right answer yet?

Q—Can you give me some suggestions on obtaining answers to prayer?

A—First of all, if prayer is to be more than a mere form of words, we must exercise faith, as we read in Hebrews 11:6: "But without faith it is impossible to please Him: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him." And Jesus said: "What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them." Mark 11:24. Answered prayer is conditional upon obedience to God and walking in the light as far as we have it. (John 15:7) The Word of God declares: "He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination." Proverbs 28:9. There are other things along this same line, showing our need of obeying God if our prayers are to be answered.

EL. Note: Address your questions to the BIBLE QUESTION COLUMN, The Voice of Prophet, Box 55, Los Angeles 55, Calif. Bible questions of general interest will be answered in this column as space permits.

Millions Collected In Taxes
For County Government Uses
Millions of dollars are paid in by Palm Beach County property owners and industries, in the way of taxes, for the necessary operating expenses of the county, city and drainage districts.

Counties Seek Increase Returns On Intangible Taxes
Last year the county received from the state for intangible property tax collections, the sum of $90,000 which is a 25% collection return. Collector James Owen is a member of a committee which has recently been working on a new bill to be presented to the next Legislature, which would provide for a 50% return of the collections. The total county collections from intangibles the past year is reported by Owen to have been approximately $339,000.

Planes Burns Up At Field
A small Aronica plane, used at the Belle Glade flying school, caught fire in some unknown manner, at a recent midnight hour, and was badly damaged, the only part saved being the engine. The plane trimmings were all consumed before the fire department could arrive at the scene of the blaze. The plane was owned by Vincent Henderson of Pahokee, one of the flying students at the school. The fact that the tank of gasoline did not explode, saved a number of other parked planes from damage.

Fields To Be Reactivated
Word from Washington is to the effect that two of Florida's former air fields at Avon Park and Pine Castle are to be reactivated for training purposes for the new army enlistees in the air service.

The field at Pine Castle is just out of Orlando and not far away from the permanent base. This will again bring a big flock of trainees to fill the street of Orlando with military personnel. The Avon Park field is located west of that town.

More Building Permits
Some $20,000 more permits for building projects were issued the past week by Building Inspector Willis, including new construction and repairs as follows: Lawrence Shuler Properties, general repairs, $1250; James Oliver, plumbing installations, $650; N. D. Lloyd, repairs, $600; C. A. Thompson, packing

Bolton Estate To Sell Equipment

The collections at the Tax Collector's office shows a total income of $3,874,853, of which $1,062,495 goes to the county units and the following sums to the school funds: general, $974,240; maintenance, $343,849; interest and sinking fund, $242,751; buildings and buses, $124,154; a grand total of $1,686,394.

The Executor of the estate of the late Ben Bolton Clewiston, who operated his farming projects west of Lake Harbor, has decided to retire from the farming business and will sell all the farming equipment and trucks at public auction on Thursday, July 8. Frank Morgan will be auctioneer.

Local Woman's Mother Dies in Panama City

William Rogers, of South Bay and Mrs. W. C. Gamble, of Belle Glade, were called to Panama City last Wednesday by the sudden death of their mother, Mrs. Laura Jean Rogers, aged 64 years, from a heart attack.

The opening date for operation is presently planned for the 12th of the month and the daily capacity will be 1,000 bushels.

troving 10,000 pounds of rough fish. The salvaged game fish were placed in streams and lakes which had live water.

Activity is soon to be started on the sugar plantation at Okeelanta, which has been inoperative for some weeks past. Crews will do repair work at the refinery, and other field crews will be working in the cane fields on seasonable work.

Had a letter from "Bo" Pugh, now located in the insurance business at Crestview, and the tone of his letter was that he was home sick for the Glades, and former associations. Bo says he has had a tough time getting his business organized at Crestview, but is now getting the breaks, so much so that he is leading the Pensacola district agency in volume of business written. His district is ranking second of the five in the state. Bo is a member of the DeFuniak baseball team in a very fast community league.

He says that his family are well, and that weekly appearance of the Belle Glade Herald, is a looked for event, as it means news from home. Bo also registers the Lions in which club he was an ardent worker.

W. P. Risk states that while in Dallas, Texas, he "got up in the air" because his room was on the 22nd floor of the hotel at which he stopped. He attended a Lions club session in the same hotel. He states that Texas is a great state, but he still prefers the Glades of Florida.

The local police department reports that as a result of the exodus of local labor to other operative fields, that there are fewer colored people in the quarters than usual.

Our colored citizens should be pleased and elated that the County School Board, has decided to give them a modern school plant on a new and spacious site. The old school building became dilapidated and unsanitary, and was a disgrace, entirely unfit for school purposes, and moral upbuilding of the pupils.

City Clerk Wallis states that the present time there are 935 persons registered on the city election polls. Are you sure your name is on the list?

Merchants report that business is very much on the dullish order. Some merchants have closed for a vacation period.

Fritz Stein's north farm on the island was completely inundated from flood water which came in through breaks in his dykes. He recently put in his heavy machinery equipment and rebuilt and increased the elevation of the dykes, and now thinks he is safe from future flood conditions. Last Sunday he started his big drainage pumps and by mid week he had all the acres of water off and inside the deep ditches. For months these waters have been fishing grounds, but now the ground and the water shores are covered with dead fish of every type, large and small, and raising odor smelling to the high heavens. Thousands of water fowl were to be seen glutting themselves with the dead fish and other tidbits pleasing to their appetites. The bird sight was very pleasing to the eye, but the fish picture was nauseating to the limit, fact I didn't want even to catch, let alone eat a fish. This Stein former water bound land will soon be bearing prolific crops.

Governor Tom Dewey has done it again, in that he was nominated for a second time by the Republican convention in Philadelphia, for that party's candidate for President. Dewey was the outstanding vote getter in the first and second ballots, and was given a unanimous landslide vote in the third. Replicans were predicting victories in the November election.

Governor Earl Warren, of California, was named Dewey's running mate as vice-president, by unanimous acclamation.

Charles E. Creel, Jr., an honor student at Pahokee High some years ago, has been a student at the University of Southern California, at Los Angeles, Cal., and was graduated there recently, with an AB degree in English Languages, in which he is specializing. When the writer resided in Pahokee, before Charles had finished high school, he was a piano student of Mrs. Cornelia Scott, who conducted music classes in Pahokee and Belle Glade, and I recall he was a pretty clever operator on the keys of a piano, and I loved to hear him play, as did many people in Pahokee. Charles plans to spend a portion of his summer vacation with his parents in Pahokee.

Major Johnson, of the Salvation Army, from West Palm Beach, is always a welcome visitor. Pahokee has a civic soft ball league, with games played at the civic center recreation field. The teams are those representing the Baptist and Methodist churches, the American Legion, Canal Point and the Florida Power and Light corporation.

Pete DeMoya expects to turn on sufficient electric juice to jump his team as winners. Titled in Belle Glade, as he was on last week. Through his efforts and that of a special committee, one hundred underprivileged children of the Glades, will be able to enjoy a summer vacation at Camp Osborne under Salvation Army auspices. This is about the only recreation life that these children get during the year.

Clewiston, our neighbor city to the west, is to have a permanent skating rink, erected and operated by Gordon and Leon Benish, who have been operating their portable rink in Belle Glade the past few weeks. The rink building has cost them $1,000 and will have a skating floor space of 108x30 feet. The turning of wheels has made this investment a possibility, and the skaters picked up in Belle Glade, has added to the project.

Judge Hubbell recalls that when he was a Judge of the Peace, and was acting as corner, he took a jury down to Okeelanta, on a death case. The dinner hour had arrived and the bunch congregated at the Co-vell Tavern for the noon meal. Mrs. Covell reported that she fed the bunch, and fried chicken was the main dish served. But it was the coffee that took the taste of the feasters, everyone praising its excellence. Come to find out it was not coffee at all, but rather a combination of hydrated chick-o-ry and carrots. The Judge who is a vegetarian, claims there is nothing superior for a coffee substitute than just these substitutes, the components of which can easily be produced in the Glades, at little cost. When the Judge came to pay for the aforementioned chicken dinner, the modest sum of 35c was charged, but he generously hiked it to 50c, because of its goodness. In the early history of the Glades, and Okeelanta in particular, the Covell stand was a popular and well patronized place, a stop for canal boats, and their patrons. What would a meal of that type cost today?

The rumor talk about the Glades that the Government is dickering with the State of Florida, to take over the maintenance of the dike banks around Lake Okeechobee, to be turned into a public park area. Now wouldn't that be something nice if it could be worked out? With an improved highway in the dike, for safe motor driving, what an attraction that would be for visiting tourists and sportsmen. It would be one of the leading attractions of the state. From the Okeechobee lake region down to the National Everglades Park, would be but a pleasant one day, drive through some of Florida's most exotic scenery.

When the woman of the home goes away it makes the place rather bare and lonely. Then again you miss those customarily good meals. Personally, I do not like to cook.

Soon the hum of the corn harvesters will be heard in the Glades, used here for the first time. Each machine can harvest ten acres a day. If the corn acreage continues to expand during the years, more and more of the mechanical harvesters will be in use here.

City Clerk Dutch Wallis is counting the days till July, when he can get away on his annual vacation for a tussle with those bronze back black bass up in Georgia lakes and streams. No more avid fisherman exists in Belle Glade than Mr. Wallis.

Joe Louis, the black bomber, disposed of challenger Walcott, by a knockout in the 11th round and announced his retirement from the ring.

Hot Weather Foods Should Be Handled With Great Care

A seasonal warning to use care in handling "hot weather" foods as a precaution against food poisoning, was issued here this week by the Florida State Board of Health.

Every year at this time outbreaks of food poisoning increase, mainly because of carelessness in handling food for large gatherings such as banquets, picnics or other affairs where a number of people are served. Usually the food is prepared in advance and there is a lack of proper storage space and adequate refrigeration.

Food poisoning occurs if disease germs get into food and then the food is allowed to remain in a warm room and is not refrigerated. The heat will cause the germs to multiply like wildfire and a short time later, persons eating the contaminated food may become violently ill with severe cramping, shortness of breath, vomiting and diarrhea. These attacks are very painful but seldom fatal. When you fix potato, chicken or ham salads, for instance leave out ingredients that spoil such as mayonnaise, eggs, pickles, until just before serving. Or keep the food refrigerated at 50 degrees or lower. Cream pastries, or any food containing milk and eggs, should also be kept cold. Meats, especially pork should be served either hot or cold, at room temperature not left sitting at room temperature. All meats should be thoroughly cooked. Lemonade and acid drinks should not be kept in all metal containers. These acid drinks frozen in a refrigerator tray with a brass base, cadmium plated, produce violent disturbances due to the attacking of the carminum by the acid.

USDA Man Develops Scale For Applying 2-4-D Weed Killer

A scale which can be graphed on an inexpensive slide rule for rapidly computing either the amount of material or speed of application for 2, 4-D preparation has been developed by L. S. Benson, weed specialist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. It offers a convenient device for county agents, contractors, and other persons who distribute application of large quantities of the chemical weed killer.

The scale is drawn for four variable factors: (1) the gallons of 2, 4-D spray required per acre; (2) the miles per hour at which the equipment is driven; (3) the number of nozzles on the spray boom; and (4) the gallons per hour discharge rate for the nozzles. With the slide rule, when any three of the factors are known and indicated on the scale, the fourth can be quickly found.

Mr. Evans has also developed a scale for use by scientists to test new formulas of the weed killer. Designed to speed up the time-consuming calculation required in extensive tests, this scale shows: (1) the amount of liquid or solids to be applied per square foot; (2) the percentage of acid equivalent; (3) the percentage of active ingredient; and (4) rate of application in pounds per acre. When these factors are indicated on the scale, the rate of application can be quickly reckoned.

Florida Manufacturing Employment Grows

Florida manufacturing employment in May was five per cent above a year ago although reflecting a considerable seasonal decline from April. Manufacturing employment at 89,200 was 3,300 below April according to Carl B. Smith, Chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission.

Employment of wage and salary earners in all major industries except shipbuilding was also a year ago. Particularly significant increases occurred in food, cigar and paper manufacturing. Increased employment in food manufacturing was primarily due to employment in citrus canneries which was above a year ago for the first time this season. The reason for this situation is that fruit was left on the trees longer this year because of poor prices and was being sold to the cannery in May as a last resort in many instances. Increased employment in paper manufacturing reflects expanded plant capacity and the introduction of new plants in this field of activity.

The seasonal decline in citrus canning employment from April was marked in spite of relatively high employment as compared with last year. There was also a continuance in the decline of wage and salary workers employed in shipbuilding in May. Shipbuilding employment was 49 per cent below a year ago.

Do You Need A Maid?

More domestic service workers are registered with the local Florida Employment Service now than at any time since 1945 according to A. M. Larrimore, manager. Most of the applicants for domestic work are colored females ranging in age from 20 to 60. The majority of these applicants are experienced in general house cleaning, family cooking, washing and ironing clothes. A few have had experience in caring for small children.

Person who are interested in obtaining the service of any of these job seekers, or other types of workers, should place an order with the Florida State Employment Service located in the Hendry Building. The phone is 307. The service is free to both applicants and employers.

Mutual Life Of N. Y. Opens New Agency in Miami

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York opened a new agency in Miami on July 1, the company's second agency in Florida.

Arthur W. Olson, 42-year-old training assistant at the company's home office, has been appointed manager of the new agency, which will serve 18 South Florida counties. The Miami office will be in the Seaboard Building, 36 N. E. First Street.

Commenting on the establishment of an agency in Miami, Mr. Patterson said that the new unit, together with the company's agency in Jacksonville, will enable The Mutual Life "to give the public and policy holders in Florida more adequate service in keeping with the increasing population and insurance needs in this fast-growing area."

Miami agency territory will include the following counties: Broward, Charlotte, Collier, Dade, De Sota, Glades, Hardee, Hendry, Highlands, Indian River, Lee, Manatee, Martin, Monroe, Okeechobee, Palm Beach, St. Lucie and Sarasota.

The remaining Florida counties will continue under the supervision of the Jacksonville agency.

Graduate's Cap And Gown Has Rich Colorful History

Ever curious about a scholar's cap and gown colors, tassels and flowing sleeves? A rich and colorful history lies behind such educational regalia.

Just as a soldier can be distinguished as to rank, division and honors by his uniform, insignia and decorations, so the educator's school, rank and degrees are identified by the vivid colors of his hood, the chevrons on his sleeve, the cut of his robe and the tassels on his cap.

The color lining the scholar's hood identifies his alma mater and his school colors also may be used as background color for the sleeve chevrons or for the mortarboard tassel. Where different schools use the same official color, separate shades are established for each.

The cut and style of a scholar's gown, though few realize it, indicates the educator's rank. The bachelor's gown, with long pointed sleeves, is worn dorsally at the top while both the master's and the doctor's are customarily worn open. The sleeves of a master's gown are closed by a small metal clasp on the arm, while the doctor's gown is notable for its full round open sleeves decorated with chevrons and velvet.

The mortar board cap is used by all degrees as is the hood, which varies in length with the scholar's rank, the doctor's being the longest and lesser degrees shorter. Only distinguishing difference in a tassel is the gold one worn only by presidents of institutions and persons holding a doctor's degree.

Academic costumes had their origin in the 11th and 12th Centuries and reached their state of modern development in England. Though used in the United States since colonial days by older colleges and universities, the cap and gown came into general use in the latter part of the last century when a code for their use was established.

Indications Point To Less Jelly Acreage In Fall

R. E. Hotard, commercial agent for the Florida East Coast Railway, for the Glades district, spent last week on a tour of the Orlando, Sanford, Oveido and Leesburgh sectors, securing a survey of the probable acreage to be planted in those areas for the fall crop.

In the celery section he found sentiment leaning toward a smaller acreage, owing to the disastrous 1941-42 season, and also less beans.

Hotard visited the Duda farm farm at Lake Gem, near Mt. Dora, of which Walter TeStrake is the manager, and there he found the latter preparing a celery seed bed, to raise plants for an early fall celery crop, to head the late supplement crop to be brought in on the company's Belle Glade farm.

Broward Drainage District Building 10 Mile Dike

Broward County Drainage District is not waiting for Government funds to carry on some of its water control projects, but is doing the work with its own and loaned equipment. This work is being done on the canal along ranges 40-41, between the North New River and the Hillsboro canals, a distance of some ten miles. The project will cost around $75,000 secured by a loan with the Dania bank. This dike will to a great extent cut off flood waters in the Dania fruit and cattle section of the county.

Army Engineers have informed the Palm Beach County Resources Development board, what work it intends to do under the over-all flood control bill cited as follows:

"Build a dike a short distance back from the east coast from West Palm Beach to Homestead to keep Everglades waters from reaching south towns; another protective dike six miles east of Canal Point, to control line waters from the northeast; a third dike southward of Clearwater toward Hialeah, and to bring better control over the impounding waters of Lake Okeechobee and protection of valuable farm lands from inundation and other damages."

President Harry S. Truman has signed the new River and Harbors bill, out of which funds some of the Glades control projects will be beneficiary.

Sugar Farmers Get Reduced Income The Past Season

The Department of Agriculture, under whose rules sugar cane is produced by contract farmers to the United States Sugar Company, at Clewiston, has released a report on cane men made during the past season, which aggregate $734,454.45, or $8,886, less than the $743,340.90 of the previous year.

This amount of money was paid to farmers in Palm Beach, Hendry and Glades counties. The smaller amount was due to the flood ravages and shorter crop harvest.

The Corporation has and is still planting additional acreage this season, and is expecting some additional planting through its pool of cane growers.

Fourth Celebration Comes On Monday

The Fourth of July, deemed by many the most important holiday of the year, because it marks the anniversary of our Declaration of Independence from the mother country of Great Britain, falls on Sunday. Custom has it that when a holiday falls on that day, the observance, if any, will be the following Monday.

Observing that rule Palm Beach county will celebrate on Monday. The big event of the county will be at West Palm Beach, Rodens at Arcadia and business will be featured celebration spots, which will draw big crowds.

Glades County Has New Tax Collector

R. D. Yoder, tax collector of Glades county, whose term of office would have expired in January, resigned the position, and Governor Millard Caldwell, has named Mrs. Cicile Brooks to the position. Mrs. Brooks, party nominee for the office, has been a deputy in the office, and is sister of Mr. Yoder. Yoder stated that the tax rolls had been closed, and collections made, thus leaving little in the office to be done during the summer months, and took this time to make transfers of office power, rather than in January.

Prison Building Supplies

Industrial work shop will be humming at the State Prison Farm, as lumber, brick and other materials are arriving at the new machine shop plants being erected by D. C. DeHaven and Ray Lane is progressing favorably.

The State has appropriated monies amounting to a half million dollars with which to put in the big prison improvements. Construction work on the new machine shop plants being erected by D. C. DeHaven and Ray Lane is progressing favorably.
